3. Participation in a Supervisory Board meeting referred to in section 2 takes place by means of tele or videoconference
4. Members of the Supervisory Board who want to participate in the Board's meeting by means of tele- or videoconference should, prior to the date of the meeting, report to the person designated by the Chairperson of the Supervisory Board entrusted with tasks related to the organization of the meeting, their intention to use this form of participation in the meeting.
5. Immediately following the opening of the Supervisory Board's meeting in which participation by means of tele- or videoconference was allowed, the Chairperson of the Supervisory Board informs the participants which members of the Supervisory Board take part in the meeting via direct remote communication systems
6. Participation by individual members of the Board in the meeting via direct remote communication systems is indicated on the attendance list and in the minutes of the given meeting, including indication which members of the Board take part in the meeting in this manner.
7. The Company shall not be responsible for lack of possibility to participate by Members of the Supervisory Board by means of tele- or videoconference if such situation results from circumstances independent from the Company, in particular such as: no connection with terminal for tele- or videoconference that enables participation in the Supervisory Board's meeting and exercising the right to vote, lost connection with the room where the Supervisory Board's meeting takes place, IT system failures, force majeure.
8. If the connection with the terminal for tele- or videoconferences is lost during the Supervisory Board's meeting the decision to continue or adjourn the meeting is taken by the Chairperson of the Supervisory Board.
9. In the event of including items on the agenda regarding adoption of resolutions which require a secret ballot, the Management Board of the Company is obliged to ensure the possibility of voting on the above resolutions using a dedicated IT platform enabling secret voting.
10. If a member of the Supervisory Board does not have at his disposal IT equipment meeting the requirements specified in section. 11 technical conditions, a member of the Supervisory Board may resign from the right to secret voting and may cast his vote in an open manner informing the attendees that he is voting "for" or "against" or "abstaining".

11. A member who wishes to participate in secret ballot on adopting a resolution, must have:
 - 1) connection to the public Internet network with a minimum bandwidth of 1 Mbps (constant bandwidth when using the platform);
 - 2) a computer with the possibility of operating Windows with one of the following browsers installed on it: IE (minimum version 11 and newer), Firefox (version 60 and newer), Chrome (version 70 and newer) or Opera (version 55 and newer) and Adobe plugin Flash Player (minimum version 27 and newer). Additionally, JavaScript and SSL 3.0 support must be enabled in the browser.
12. Members of the Supervisory Board receive from the Company to the e-mail address provided a start password to the IT platform dedicated to participate in voting on resolutions during a specific meeting of the Supervisory Board, which is used only for the first registration to this platform. In order to maintain the security and confidentiality principles in using the platform, the Supervisory Board Member must change the above password to his own as described in the instructions sent by the Company together with the login and start password.
13. The risk associated with the use of electronic communication means to participate in the meeting of the Supervisory Board, speak and vote, as well as associated with the incorrect or unauthorized use of the login or password, lies solely with the member of the Supervisory Board and the Company is not liable.
