

Leszek Koziowski

Partner, legal advisor. He is the head of the capital markets law department in the GESSEL, KOZIOROWSKI law firm.

Since 1994 he has advised in, among others, public and private offerings of shares and bonds, mergers and acquisitions of listed companies, establishment and providing services for brokerage firms and investment funds; he also provides corporate services for public companies, including services for their governing bodies and related to regulatory disclosures. He also represents clients in all kinds of legal and administrative proceedings related to the capital market.

Since 1999 he has been working and since 2002 he has been a partner in the GESSEL, KOZIOROWSKI law firm. From the beginning of his career he has been involved with the Polish capital market. At first, he worked at the Securities Commission, where he was Deputy Chairman of the Examination Board for Investment Advisors. Now, he is an arbitrator in the Stock Exchange Court at the Warsaw Stock Exchange and in Arbitration Court at the Private Employers' Organization "Lewiatan". He was a member of numerous supervisory boards, and a Chairman of the Supervisory Board at Iglotex S.A.

Leszek Koziowski graduated from the Faculty of Law and Administration of the Warsaw University in 1994 and in 1998 he was entered on the list of legal advisors.

Leszek Koziowski is recommended in ranks of law firms published by "Rzeczpospolita" daily (2005-2013) and "Forbes" magazine (2009-2011). He is presented as the best legal advisor in Poland when it comes to capital markets law and pre float preparation. Also "Chambers Europe. Europe's Leading Lawyers for Business" lists him among the leaders in the field of capital markets (2007-2013) and describes him as a talented and respected lawyer who definitely belongs to the elite ("Chambers Europe. Europe's Leading Lawyers for Business", 2007).

Many times he discussed matters related to capital markets, both in law magazines and in the form of articles. His publications were published in such magazines as "Przegląd Prawa Handlowego" (Commercial Law Review), "Prawo Papierów Wartościowych" (Securities Law), "Radca Prawny" (Legal Advisor), "Rynek Kapitałowy" (Capital Market), "Rzeczpospolita" daily, "Gazeta Giełdy Parkiet" (Stock Exchange daily) and "Dziennik" (daily).